

Fundraising for Wakamatsu

Our farm is a testament to the pioneer spirit of California, a valuable asset in El Dorado county, and a living history of California's rich agricultural heritage.

The ARC is actively seeking grants and donations to help pay off the existing loan and protect this site in perpetuity. To this end, the ARC also needs sponsors and help for infrastructure and upcoming festivals. Please support us in our worthy and courageous community endeavor!

Improvements at Wakamatsu have come from a diverse group of supporters:

Japanese American Citizen's League - California Cultural and Historical Endowment - Consulate General of Japan - Tourism Cares - REI - City of Aizu, Wakamatsu, Japan - California Rice Commission - Rebecca Allen, Ph.D - Gold Hill-Wakamatsu Colony Foundation - David Girard Vineyards - Placer Land Trust - Senator Barbara Boxer - Congresswoman Doris Matsui - Congressman Mike Honda - Congressman Tom McClintock - County Supervisor Ron Briggs - and SO many more.
